

Carina Lindén holds a MA in Economics and is Deputy Director at the Division for Upper Secondary and Adult Education and Training at the Ministry of Education and Research in Sweden. Her main area is Adult and Vocational Education and Training with a focus on international developments. Carina Lindén works at the crossroads of the policy areas education, training and labour market and has been actively involved in the Copenhagen process since it was initiated more than 15 years ago.

In the EU context Carina Lindén represents the Swedish Government in the Advisory Committee on Vocational Education and Training (ACVT), the meetings of the Directors General for Vocational Education and Training (DGVT), the Board of Cedefop, the Board of ETF (alternate member) and the EQF Advisory Group and in the OECD the PIAAC Board of participating countries and the Group of National experts in Vocational Education and Training and Adult learning.