

Külli All is a deputy head of adult education department at Estonian Ministry of Education and Research. She has experience in taking part in different research projects, teaching in VET and HE institutions, organising and managing work-related training at private institution. She is responsible for developing of Estonian professional qualification system, skills development coordination system and implementation of recognition of prior learning (RPL). Her tasks include providing policy advice, analysis and technical support for the development and implementation of the Estonian Qualification Framework, coordinating professional, vocational and adult education activities in relationship with labour market and social policies. She has experience in development of the vocational teachers' and trainers' profession and supporting LO based curricula development in the field of vocational training.

She has been involved in development and implementation of European Qualification Framework (EQF) and European Credit system in VET (ECVET) since 2005. She is a member of the Governing Board of European Training Foundation, member of the EQF Advisory Group and member of the ECVET User's Group.