

FLASH REPORT

Event name

ETF Webinar: New ideas for assessment: assessment for learning
29 September 2020, 10:30-12:00 CET, ZOOM, multilingual EN-FR-RU

Main objective/s

To increase the participants' knowledge on the concepts underpinning formative assessment, methods, and the impact on learning

Background

Second webinar in the series 'New ideas for assessment' of the ETF Task Force on Assessment to support VET teachers and trainers in the design and use of assessment during pandemic of COVID-19 and beyond. The first webinar of the series held on 13.05.2020 reviewed the various approaches countries are undertaking for the final exams at the pandemic crisis 'New ideas for final exams'.

SHORT DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT

During this webinar we highlighted the main concepts underpinning formative assessment and illustrated the concepts with four examples from four different countries: Georgia, Albania, Spain and Tunisia. Participants were from ETF Partner Countries and the EU.

KEY OUTCOMES/CONCLUSIONS

The webinar showed different ways to organise formative assessment and emphasised the value of the use of feedback to facilitate the learning process.

Recordings of the webinar are available on the ETF Open Space platform at:
