IN COLLABORATION WITH

DAY ONE

MONDAY, 21 JUNE 2021

Grand opening of the online gatherings in plenary

9.00 - 10.00

Setting the scene of the week ahead - thematic sessions
Why is there a need for system change?

Adapting to a Changing Skills Demand

10.30 - 12.30

Global trends are transforming the way we work, learn and live. What does this mean for people, and how can education and training systems help them develop the skills they need throughout their lives?

New Forms of Learning

13.30 - 15.30

In the fast-changing world, people learn in different settings and learning environments. What conditions are required at system level to facilitate and encourage the development and implementation of more meaningful and engaging learning environments?

DAY TWO

TUESDAY, 22 JUNE 2021

How to manage change to make it happen?

Role of Actors in Lifelong Learning Systems

9.00 - 11.00

Moving towards lifelong learning systems means rethinking the roles and responsibilities of the different actors in the system. What new tasks and accountabilities must governments, businesses and civil society assume in governing and financing lifelong learning?

Monitoring and Adapting

11.30 - 13.30

Changing systems requires sustained reform efforts. What mechanisms do we need to put in place to monitor whether our reforms are on track, and to adapt our approach accordingly?

DAY THREE

WEDNESDAY, 23 JUNE 2021

Well-performing systems: expectations and deliverables

Skills for All

9.00 - 11.00

Ensuing a cohesive and fair digital and green transition means providing quality learning opportunities for everyone throughout their lives. How can we build lifelong learning systems that are inclusive by design?

Supporting the Green Transition

11.30 - 13.30

Climate change and environmental degradation are among the major global challenges of our times. How can education and training systems support a fair and inclusive transition toward sustainable carbon neutral economies and societies?
