beroepsonderwijs
bedrijfsleven

Monique Storck
m.storck@s-bb.nl

SECTORAL COMMITTEE TECHNOLOGY AND BUILT ENVIRONMENT

Advice on connection VET and labourmarket on technology and built environment

Members:

6 members education (5 government founded schools, 1 private educational institute)

6 members labour market (3 unions, 3 employers)

Task: advise on connecting labour market and vocational education

Advice on connection VET and labourmarket on technology and built environment

7 Sub sectoral advisory committees

- Building
- Finishing and mantenance of buildings
- Technical installations
- Infrastructure
- Process industry
- Machine building and mechatronica
- Wood and furniture industry

Develop and maintain qualification framework

Roles:

- Providing information on jobs, professions, demands
- Decide wether/how to translate this information in qualifications
- Give order to develop of maintain qualifications for VET
- Providing experts from labour market and education

SBB develops the qualifications,

- based on delivered information about jobs, professions and demands
- helped by these experts
- Following criteria fromminstry of education

Energy, climate change, sustainability

- Many people needed for energy transition, climate change, sustainability
- Temporary advisory committee on these three themes (2020-2021)

Advise:
- develop awareness, both in personal life and in jobs
- new materials, new techniques, changing tasks between jobs
- work in progress: teach to keep up new possibilities and demands
- social skills + technical skills needed
- use qualifications and the flexible parts of qualifications (keuzedelen) to enable actual connection between education and new demands on labour market
- Educate students and workers