Vocational and Educational Training

WHO WE ARE

ENGIM (Ente Nazionale Giuseppini del Murialdo), is a private organization working on professional training and international cooperation, since 1977.

We operate in Italy and around the world, promoting social and work inclusion, fostering human dignity expressed through work.

We promote the development of those in “need” with technical and transversal skills to contribute to an inclusive and socially responsible culture.

In 1873 Saint Leonardo Murialdo founds the Congregation of San Giuseppe – Giuseppini del Murialdo (from which ENGIM is derived). He welcomed, assisted, educated, and trained as craftsmen, poor and abandoned children and young people, in equipped laboratories.

INTERNATIONALISATION

a RIGHT for ALL

ENGIM wants to equip society, and more specifically the labour world, with people capable of adapting to changing contexts, different cultures, and new requirements.

BUT HOW?

1. Mobility Plan for students and staff
2. KA2 European and international projects
3. Integration of 'international' topics into curricula and in 'daily' activities
4. Consolidation of external partner network
5. Constant and regular exchange of practices with external realities
6. Integration of companies by objectives and strategies (domestic network)
7. Involvement and continuous training of staff
