

Short CV Dakoronia

Margarita Dakoronia holds a BA in European and International Relations, a Diplôme d'Études Approfondies (DEA) in Études Communautaires et Internationales, and a Diplôme Européen des Hautes Études Internationales.

She is Head of the European Union Department and Coordinator of the Eurydice National Unit for Greece at the Directorate for European and International Affairs of the Greek Ministry of Education Religious Affairs and Sports. She has extensive professional experience in European and international affairs, particularly in European cooperation in education and training, EU education policy and the coordination of Greece's participation in European initiatives and programmes. Her responsibilities include the preparation and coordination of national positions and briefings for EU meetings, monitoring developments in European education and training policy, and supporting Greece's participation in European programmes and initiatives, and the European Education Area.