

Short CV Passas

Panagiotis Passas is the Director General for Human Resources at the Hellenic Ministry of Education, Religious Affairs and Sports. In this capacity, he concurrently serves as the acting Director General for International and European Affairs, Education for the Hellenic Diaspora, and Intercultural Education.

He is a graduate of the Hellenic National School of Public Administration (General Administration Division) and holds a Bachelor's degree in History and Archaeology from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, a Master of Arts in International Relations and Strategic Studies from the University of Lancaster (UK), and a Master of Science in Public Administration and Public Management from the University of West Attica. He is fluent in Greek, English, French, and German.

At the European and international level, he represents the Hellenic Ministry in education-related committees of the European Union, the Council of Europe, the OECD, UNESCO, and the Organization of the Black Sea Economic Cooperation (BSEC).

He has served as Chair, Member, and Expert in various working groups, inter-ministerial committees, and scientific panels on issues related to education, civil service reform, European programs, and international affairs. He has also participated in collective bodies and committees responsible for drafting legislation, designing innovative projects, and promoting lifelong learning and training for public administration personnel, as well as advancing reforms toward a more socially responsive and effective state.
