

Beata Dziemińska-Skowron – Chief expert, Department of Strategy, Qualifications and Vocational Education, Unit of Labour Market Monitoring, Ministry of National Education of the Republic of Poland

The scope of her responsibility in the Ministry of Education involves preparation of organisational and legal solutions related to adapting vocational education and training system to the labour market needs, and the development of vocational counselling and career guidance in education sector. She also contributes to the implementation of the monitoring system of educational and professional pathways of post-primary school graduates, forecast of the demand for the employees in vocational education professions, and cooperation with employers' organisations and other stakeholders in determining the directions for the development of vocational education system. She is also responsible for the nationwide internet platform dedicated to vocational education and career guidance and promoting cooperation between VET schools and employers. At the Ministry of Education she was also in charge of legislative process related to the classification of professions in vocational education and the organisation of vocational education system.

She is the representative of the Ministry in EU institutions supporting the development of vocational education and training policies and a member of EU expert and working groups acting in the field of vocational education and training, focusing on cooperation and exchange, quality assurance, green and digital transformation in vocational education and training.

By education - a philologist and a manager. In the past she worked in private sector, education system and in state administration.