

Marina Živković

Head of Section for International Cooperation
Department for European Affairs, International Cooperation and Projects
Agency for Vocational Education and Training and Adult Education

EDUCATION:

2011 M.A in Education, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Zagreb
2008 B.A. in Education, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Zagreb

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Currently at the position of the Head of Section for International Cooperation at the Agency for Vocational Education and Training and Adult Education.

Main tasks: organizing, coordinating and carrying out activities of the ESF project "Modernisation of the system of VET teachers' professional development".

Other tasks: coordinating and participating in the international activities of the Agency, ensuring cooperation with the EU agencies and the involvement of the Agency in the activities of international associations, working bodies and groups.