

Ioanna Lytrivi is a Member of Hellenic Parliament as State Deputy. She is a Political Scientist with a PhD in Education, Training and Employment Policies. She is a graduate of the University of Athens, School of Philosophy, in Linguistics, and she holds a Master' s degree in educational policy. She serves as Secretary of the Standing Parliamentary Committee on Cultural and Educational Affairs and Member of the Special Permanent Parliamentary Committee on Equality, Youth and Human Rights. She is also member of the Parliamentary Subcommittees for Combating Human Trafficking and Exploitation and for People with Disabilities. She is appointed as a member of the Board of Directors of the European Training Foundation (ETF)

She is affiliated teaching staff in the School of Economics, Business and Computer Science at Neapolis University, Cyprus.

She was the Managing Director of the National Organization for the Certification of Qualifications and Vocational Guidance (E.O.P.P.E.P.) (2019- 2023). During this period, she represented Greece in the EU Advisory Group for the European Qualifications Framework (EQF).

She has worked as a Special Advisor in the Hellenic Parliament and the Ministries of Administrative Reform and Governance (2011-2019). Prior to that, she worked as a scientific coordinator in public lifelong learning institutions (2009-2011).