

2008 ESTIMATE OF REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

The European Training Foundation (ETF) is a specialised agency of the European Union based in Turin, Italy.

The ETF<sup>1</sup> provides advice and assistance to the European Commission and 29 partner countries<sup>2</sup> for the reform of human resource development policies under the European Union's external relations instruments<sup>3</sup>.

The ETF provides services to a range of stakeholders and clients with shared interests in the contribution that human resource development can make to EU external assistance objectives. These stakeholders include European institutions such as the European Commission, the European Parliament, related European agencies, and EC Delegations, and policy stakeholders in partner countries. The ETF also works with the international donor community on the exchange of information and lessons learned in the assistance field.

ETF activities are guided by its Mid Term Perspective<sup>4</sup> (MTP) which describes the priorities and actions it will follow during the 2007-10 period to support the reform of human resources in partner countries in the context of education and training and labour market developments within a lifelong learning perspective.

The ETF's activities over the mid-term (2007-10) comprise three main pillars of action and cover:

- Support to education and training reform by:
  - Contributing to the EU's enlargement process by supporting the modernisation and reform of education, labour market and training systems in candidate and potential candidate countries;
  - Contributing to prosperity and development in the European Neighbourhood region through cooperation and partnership in human resource policy development and implementation;
  - Contributing to human resource development in Central Asia;
  - Supporting the European Commission and partner country policy development through innovation and learning;
- Corporate communication of the ETF's activities, products and services; and
- Organisational learning: strengthening the ETF's knowledge and systems to support the delivery of Community assistance.

The latest phase of the Tempus Programme, Tempus III, which came into force in 2000 will come to an end during the period covered by the ETF's mid term perspective. Commission services are currently discussing a potential successor programme to Tempus III. The present phase expired at the end of 2006, and, as indicated in ETF's Mid-term Perspective 2007-2010, the management of Tempus

<sup>3</sup> The EU's external assistance programmes help developing and emerging economies achieve sustainable economic and social development through greater integration into the world economy and the reduction of poverty. The ETF provides support under the Instrument for Pre-Accession (IPA), the European Neighbourhood Policy Instrument (ENPI) and the Development and Co-operation Instrument (DCI)

<sup>4</sup> The MTP is informed by three main policy sources i) the external relations instruments of the 2007-2013 Programming cycle – IPA, ENPI, DCI; ii) the anticipated new Council Regulation for the ETF; and iii) the Communication of the Commission to the Parliament, the Council of Ministers and the Economic and Social Committee on the ETF COM(2006) 832 final of 19.12.2006.

technical assistance is expected to be repatriated from the ETF to the Executive Agency for Education, Audio-Visual, and Culture in Brussels by the end of 2007. The current Annual Policy Strategy and Preliminary Draft Budget have been prepared on the repatriation assumption in the Mid-term Perspective. However, given that, at the time of drafting the Annual Policy Strategy, the Commission's definitive decision on repatriation has not yet been communicated to ETF, it is possible that some technical assistance activities may continue into 2008. The operational and financial implications of these changes would need to be introduced into ETF's planning when the 2008 draft Work Programme and draft budget are prepared during Autumn 2007.

As an agency of the EU, the ETF will also follow the priorities of the EU Presidency and the evolving policy and institutional context of the European Union, including any impact on the role and services required by the Commission from its agencies. In this respect, the ETF will ensure its expertise is available to the European Commission in support of policy initiatives on the broader contribution of the European Union to European society, security and transparency and key international issues such as globalisation and sustainable development.

Priorities

In the period 2007-10, ETF activities are prioritised around nine countries receiving assistance through the IPA and ENPI instruments<sup>5</sup>. The ETF's objectives<sup>6</sup> and expected results will be to ensure that by the end of 2010:

- information, analyses, and policy advice improving human resource development in the context of EU external assistance have been provided by the ETF to the partner countries;
- partner country stakeholder capacities have been strengthened and result in more relevant education and training sectors;
- the ETF has facilitated the exchange of information and experience among donors engaged in human resources development reform in partner countries;
- the ETF's policy advice and programming analysis have improved the effectiveness and relevance of Community assistance programmes to partner countries in the field of human resource development; and
- the ETF's dissemination and networking activities transfer relevant policy lessons between EU Member States and partner countries and between partner countries, and provide opportunities for engagement with the EU's policies and programmes

ETF support under the external assistance instruments for the remaining countries will be mainly provided through information sharing (including cross country and regional dissemination), policy intelligence gathering, and the integration of partner countries into ETF networks. Where there is a specific request for assistance from the Commission or EC Delegations, the ETF will also provide policy advice and support in these countries. In addition, the ETF will also provide ongoing advice and capacity building support to the republics of Central Asia covered in the DCI instrument.

ETF activities in 2008

The ETF's activities in 2008 will be influenced by internal and external developments. Internal influences relate to the ETF's adaptation of its organisational capacities to meet the requirements of the new external assistance instruments. In 2008, this will involve a greater deployment of policy methodologies, such as preparatory actions in support of sector policy developments<sup>7</sup>, as part of its services. This will improve the ability of partner countries to maximise their opportunities for support under the external assistance instruments.

External influences relate to the twin challenges often faced by partner countries. Firstly, the number of years of education and training in partner countries is less than that required to support competitive GDP growth<sup>8</sup>; secondly, productivity gains from education are constrained by labour markets in which there is a lack of available skilled employment opportunities<sup>9</sup>. In this respect, there is a growing policy role for education and training to support policies that link education to broader economic areas, such as trade in relation to foreign direct investment.

In addition to capacity building and supporting community assistance in partner countries, external assistance is strengthening the relationships between partner countries and the EU's internal market, e.g. the European education and training space. The use of Member State experiences in the ETF's work promotes the EU as a reference for education and training. Similarly, policy and capacity development in education in many partner countries is increasingly undertaken in the context of pan-European approaches such as the Bologna process and the EU's Education and Training 2010 policy.

Finally, reform of education and training policies in partner countries is increasingly having an impact on the improvement of the quality of skilled labour seeking to migrate to the EU from partner countries.

Support to Education and Training Reform in 2008

In 2008, the ETF will maintain a commitment to cross cutting themes that contribute to overall education and training reform, social cohesion, and the growth of competitiveness in partner countries. These include projects to support frameworks and pathways for mobility in learning; education financing; capacities for improving employment and labour market efficiency; decentralisation in governance; the contribution of skills development to poverty reduction; and the continuing capacity development of stakeholders.

These relate to strategic objectives that will be achieved progressively during 2007-10. In 2008, the ETF's priorities and distribution of effort across the ENPI, IPA, and DCI instruments is stable and will remain largely unchanged from 2007.

In the enlargement area during 2008, the ETF will:

- increase the effectiveness of IPA by making the European perspective more tangible for partner countries in the area of human resource development;
- support education and training reform and employment policy by increasing the partner countries' capacity to steer reforms in the area of human resource development.

In the European Neighbourhood area in 2008, the ETF will:

- support EU services in the definition and implementation of its external policies by providing input to the project cycle;
- increase ENPI partner countries' capacities to design, implement and monitor the reform of human resource development systems.

In Central Asia in 2008, the ETF will:

- improve the relevance of the human resource development components in EU funded interventions in Central Asia by supporting the definition, preparation and impact assessment of EU funded interventions;
- increase Central Asian partner countries' capacities to review, design and implement the reform of human resource development systems.

<sup>8</sup> For example, a child entering school in 2007 in an ETF partner country can expect to receive almost four years (3.9) less of formal schooling than a child entering school now in an EU15 Member State.

<sup>9</sup> The percentage of the working-age population in formal non-agricultural employment is limited in many countries, ranging from between 10% and 30% in some partner countries.

New actions in the ETF's 2008 work programme will build on the migration and transition to employment innovation projects that come to an end in 2007 as well as addressing the contribution of human resource development to productivity and competitiveness, e.g. links between HRD and foreign direct investment and the relationship of gender participation in the economy to economic growth.

Additional activities will also be undertaken in 2008 to support the intensification of preparatory activities for sector policy developments. In 2007, the ETF has been providing support to Armenia in this area; the need for similar support in other ENPI countries during 2008 is anticipated. The activities will strengthen the policy analysis and learning processes of partner countries through capacity building actions in the context of sector based approaches. This is in line with the direction of the new external assistance instruments. The further elaboration of the ETF's work at the preparatory stage of sector based approaches offers the possibility of the extension of the ETF's capacity to provide support to a larger number of priority countries.

In addition, the ETF will continue to generate evidence-based policy advice for the Commission and partner countries on the impact of specific reform initiatives through its innovation and learning projects. In 2008, the ETF will also draw on the lessons and experiences gained in its knowledge management and policy learning projects that are being carried out in 2007<sup>10</sup>.

Corporate communication of the ETF's activities, products and services

The ETF's external communication actions in 2008 will promote the profile of education and training and its contribution to human resource development within the context of the EU external relations programmes.

In its December 2006 Communication to the European Parliament and the Council of Ministers on the ETF, the European Commission recommended that ETF re-enforce its capacity to communicate its achievements and results and explore new approaches to the development and appropriate dissemination of relevant material. The ETF will place specific emphasis on improving the accessibility of its work to partner country stakeholders and producing more material in partner country languages. In the course of the year, the ETF's communication activities will concentrate on:

- disseminating information on results and thematic materials relating to human resource development as well as facilitating debate amongst stakeholders and key players;
- distributing authoritative information to policy makers, practitioners, and stakeholders
- contributing actively to international debate on reform in transition countries;
- promoting and maintaining the ETF corporate identity as a centre of expertise in human resources development and the visibility of EC actions.

Organisational learning: strengthening ETF knowledge and systems to support the delivery of Community assistance

In 2008, the ETF will continue the adaptation of its operations to the institutional landscape of the new external assistance instruments. This will ensure a closer link between ETF pilot actions and larger scale EC funded actions or actions which could be funded by other donors.

In 2008, the ETF will also bring together an International Advisory Panel (IAP). This will be a consultative body of experts and practitioners representing the ETF's operational environment. The function of the IAP will be to provide feedback and advice on the work of the ETF in the context of the move from an agency with a primary focus on vocational education to one with a broader focus on human resources development in a lifelong learning context.

In line with establishing a clear vision within the ETF of its position and role as a European centre of expertise, the ETF will continue to implement its new organisational model, including its human resources management framework, a review of staff performance appraisal systems, personal development plans and recruitment policy as well as the delivery of specific training measures designed to reinforce the ETF's policy development capacities.

In 2008, the ETF will also monitor the links between its MTP, annual work programme and the impact on partner countries. In 2008, there will be more visible links between the ETF's actions in its operating environment and the policy context provided by the European Commission. This will involve re-enforcing the ETF's monitoring systems, such as audits, evaluations and assessment to ensure the more systematic collection of country programme information to support decisions at the organisational level. The ETF's planning and reporting cycle will focus on the impact of its work to ensure the achievement of its strategic objectives and the delivery of the results expected from its Mid-Term Perspectives.

EXPLANATORY NOTE ON THE PRELIMINARY DRAFT BUDGET 2008

Introduction to the Preliminary Draft Budget 2008

The 2008 Preliminary Draft Budget is based on a subvention of €19,484,000 from the Community budget as forecast in ETF Mid-Term Perspective 2007-10 (ETF-GB-06-026) and rationale for the ETF estimate of revenue and expenditure 2008 (ETF-GB-06-029) and presented to the November 2006 Governing Board meeting.

The revenue part of that 2008 Preliminary Draft Budget is based on the assumption that the ETF subvention will be drawn in 2008 from the same sources as in 2007.

The proposed subvention level represents a decrease compared with the 2007 subvention level (€19.7 million) which, taking in consideration the level of inflation, is in the order of 4 %. Although the 2008 Preliminary Draft Budget represents a decrease in subvention compared to 2007, the ETF considers that the level of resources is in line with the broadened mandate agreed with the Board and with the ETF's specific 2008 policy objectives and challenges outlined in the above-mentioned Annual Policy Strategy.

It is to be noted that the Preliminary Draft Budget has been prepared on the assumption that ETF will no longer provide any Tempus technical assistance activities after 2007. Indeed, as presented in the ETF's Mid-Term Perspective 2007-10, the resources released by the repatriation of Tempus will be redirected to support operational activities related to the ETF's new functions. However, given that, at the time of drafting the Preliminary Draft Budget, the Commission's definitive decision on repatriation has not yet been communicated to ETF, it is possible that some technical assistance activities may continue into 2008. The operational and financial implications of these changes would need to be introduced into ETF's planning when the 2008 draft Work Programme and draft budget are prepared during Autumn 2007.

Following a recommendation made during the ETF Governing Board meeting of November 2006, the ETF proposes to increase funding for operational activities (Chapter 31) by €350,000 with a proportionate reduction in staff costs (Title I) in comparison with initial indications presented in November.

The ETF establishment plan has been adapted to match both the reduction of resources earmarked for staff costs and to reflect changes in staff grading in application of 2004 revision of the staff regulations. This would enable the ETF to maintain a staffing level of 96 temporary agents in 2008 which is in line with the number of temporary agents in post at the end of 2007.

Specific comments on the Preliminary Draft Budget 2008

The proposed Pre-Draft Budget 2008 corresponds to a decrease of 4% in Title I and of 1.55% in Title II and an increase of 8.8% in Title III.

Title I (Expenditure related to staff working at the ETF): A decrease of 4% over 2006 is in line with the expected stabilisation in the number of temporary agent posts occupied at the end of 2007, an increase in the number of Contract Agents (from 21 to 34) and in Detached National Experts (from 5 to 6). All other related budget items are expected to decrease slightly compared to spending of previous years (with minor shifts between items resulting from the transition period created by the phasing out of Tempus activities in particular). The ETF expects to increase its investment in staff training and development to underpin its efforts to adapt to its changing institutional and operational context under the new EU programmes (item 1440).

The minor decrease foreseen in Missions expenses (-1.37%) is related to expected reduction of needs related to the end of Tempus technical assistance operations while the ETF plans to continue with the policy of reciprocal co-operation and capacity building with sister organisations through long term staff placements initiated in 2007. Three placements have been foreseen in 2007.

Title II (Building, equipment and miscellaneous operating expenditure): A slight decrease in expenditure is currently expected in this Title compared to 2007 (-1.55%). However, there remain a number of uncertainties, related to the compulsory introduction of a new financial software (ABAC) and the ongoing re-assessment of the ETF's management information. These uncertainties might determine moderate changes at the time of presenting the draft budget.

Title III (Expenses related to the performance of specific missions): This Title is expected to increase by 8% compared to 2007 in response to the changes in the ETF's operational role under the new external relations instruments. The increase in funding will mostly be invested in supporting the ETF's human resources development policy support in the priority countries agreed with the Governing Board in the Pre-accession and Neighbourhood regions.

Under Chapter 31 (Priority Actions – Work Programme activities), the ETF will accommodate the meetings of the IAP (International Advisory Panel, replacing the Advisory Forum, in line with a recommendation from the Governing Board). The agency proposes a slight increase in the funding of internal evaluation resulting from the ETF's commitment to quality control (item 3140).

It is important to note that Title VI (earmarked expenditures linked to Tempus technical assistance operations) has been maintained in the budget structure for comparability reasons over time, though no activity is expected to involve the ETF after the end of 2007. At the end of 2006 another convention was signed with DG EAC, amounting to €870,000 to cover Tempus activities in 2007 and will be presented to the Governing Board in the 2007 amended budget.

Finally, please note that the ETF has taken advantage of the preparation of the pre-draft budget to delete a number of budget items that had become redundant. Budget items which have been unused for at least three years have been removed from the title structure in line with accepted practice.

These costs are paid annually by the ETF. An amount of €5 000 has additionally been budgeted to cover the rent of office space in Brussels. Planning assumptions Archive/Storage space is part of the ETF/VG site agreement and lasts ten years at which point ETF will have free use of the space. The estimation includes : symbolic rent for office premises (1€), the rent for a single office in DG EAC building in Brussels 5,300 €. No archive reimbursement this year.

	2 02 0	Water, gas, electricity and heating	126,000	126,000	118,000	This appropriation is intended to cover utilities (water, gas, electricity and heating). Planning assumptions Costs tend to rise with poor weather (hot in summer or cold in winter) and with energy costs in general. An increase of 7% to follow the trend of the increase in costs registered during the past years has been taken into account already last year. Active savings measures can counter-act this only to a certain degree. The foreseen slight increase in staff will also affect probably needs.
2 03		Cleaning and maintenance	270,000	270,000	260,000
	2 03 0	Cleaning and maintenance	270,000	270,000	260,000	This appropriation is intended to cover maintenance costs (parts, lifts, heating, air-conditioning, pipes) and cleaning of the common spaces as foreseen by the Convention CON/03/ETF/0071 as well as for the cleaning of the building. The total cost for maintenance and cleaning of the parts of the building jointly used varies according to the number of unforeseen repairs and interventions during the year. Planning assumptions The total cost for maintenance and cleaning of the parts of the building jointly used varies according to the number and dimension of unforeseen repairs and interventions during the year. Due to building aging and some technical problems (roofing, drains, floor deformation) the number of interventions has increased in the past years. A new cleaning contract at end 2008 might affect the cleaning component
2 04		Furnishing of premises	20,000	20,000	17,500

This multi-year project concluded in 2006 with the entire property having been internally redecorated apart from a small number of areas. The amount of €15,000 on this budget line will be used for the painting of some parts of the building (internal decoration). The various ongoing ETF restructurings may lead to changes in the office occupation plan. Therefore a reserve has been planned for eventual partition and furnishing. Small maintenance works will be needed

	2 05 0	Security and surveillance	150,000	150,000	145,000	This appropriation is intended to cover the various expenses relating to the security and safety of the building. The following activities are gathered under this budget item: surveillance, maintenance of anti-intrusion system, purchase and maintenance of fire equipment and costs of inspections required by Italian law (626). Planning assumptions The increase over the last years is related to additional need for security: more work in the weekend, more events and meetings internally can lead to higher costs. A new contract will be concluded during 2007. A margin was foreseen in view of a possible increase of the hourly fee. New RSPP at end 2006, he will submit recommendations for annual meeting probably in May; new security contract possible increases in costs, increased Video recording (CCTV) proposal;
2 09		Other expenditure on buildings	83,200	85,000	79,000
	2 09 0	Other expenditure on buildings	83,200	85,000	79,000	This appropriation is intended to cover the other current expenses relating to buildings not specifically provided for, notably taxes and roads, drainage, refuse collection, as well as administrative costs, payable to the Villa Gualino Consortium as provided for in the agreement CON/03/ETF/0071. Planning assumptions As from 2007, the reimbursement for Villa Gualino insurance contracts for ETF areas of the property, tenant's civil liability, civil liability employees and third parties, theft and robbery, fire, missions, electronic all risks, third party vehicles, injuries and legal indemnity (for an estimated amount of € 5 000) will be included in this budget item. Management &amp; Administrative fees paid to VG, in line with the site agreement are proportional to running costs (20% of the total paid on BL 2010, 2030,2020). The tax for refuse collection will increase probably by 2% (ISTAT).

	2 10 0	ICT hardware	200,300	200,300	222,000	This item has been allocated to cover the purchase of computer hardware including network servers, personal computers, printers and networking / communications equipment. The life cycle of IT equipment and produces a three-four year replacement cycle with smaller or larger procurement depending upon the amount of equipment reaching obsolescence. Planning assumptions Yearly, upon average, the ETF replaces an approximately 30 workstations and 5 network printers due to obsolescence. (Shelf life is between 36-48 months). A wide ranging ICT project has been launched in October to cater for reorganisational and changing needs for corporate, administrative and operational IT: project, resource and time management. The Bootstrap project is currently in a requirements definition phase but may include a hardware component. Possible decrease, as a result of anticipated procurement in 2007 budget - possible increase should numbers of staff (temporary) increase post-Tempus. Some server renewal may be required (ABAC, Bootstrap and replacement).

Art.	Item	Title	2008 Pre Draft Budget	2007 Budget	2006 Revised Budget	Remarks 2008
	2 10 1	Software development and purchase	150,000	150,000	144,300	This item has been allocated to cover the purchase of standard software applications and for the development of software systems. Planning assumptions: Based on current needs and expressed requirements an amount of € 130.000 has been forecast (including an estimated cost for the Bootstrap project despite the incompleteness of the definition phase). Additional needs are possible in the light of continued reorganisation and in the fields of : Human Resource Management, Project Portfolio/Professional services management and Commission regulatory administrative systems. a reserve of € 20.000 has therefore been added: € 150.000.
	2 10 2	Other expenses	128,700	128,700	128,700	This item has been allocated to cover the costs associated with the maintenance and support of both ICT hardware and software including the purchase of computer durables, maintenance and other interventions Infrastructure Support: the major cost in this item is that of currently running maintenance and support contracts for hardware (for both servers and network infrastructure) and software systems e.g. Microsoft Office, Oracle and IBM Lotus Notes. Planning assumptions Infrastructure Support: the major cost in this item is that of currently running maintenance and support contracts for hardware (for both servers and network infrastructure, extension of warranty for equipment) and software systems e.g. Microsoft Office, Oracle and IBM Lotus Notes. In the last two years we have experienced an increase in consumable consumption due to increased usage and numbers of on-site users.
	2 10 3	Telecoms costs	90,000	90,000		This appropriation is intended to cover the fixed costs of subscriptions, communication costs and internet fees. During the revision and forecasting work for Budget 2007, the services responsible for both Chapters 21 and article 241 (BL 2410 &amp; 2411) made the proposal to move the two lines: 2410 Telecoms costs and 2411 Telecoms equipment costs under the umbrella chapter 21 (formerly data processing) which would then be renamed ICT - Information &amp; Communications Technologies. This term, ICT, is the most widely used term describing informatics, computing issues AND due to the convergent nature of IT (Information Technology) and Telecoms (Communications technologies) seeing these items as one logical budgetary grouping would be most natural and rational. Retaining the two items ensures transparency in the breakdown for audit purposes. Some examples of convergence are: smart phones and other PDA (personal digital devices) acting simultaneously as Network and Voice devices, IP telephony, mobile telephony, Videoconferencing / Web-IP conferencing, intelligent network switching and Private Branch Exchange IP/IT integration.
	2 10 4	Telecoms equipment costs	35,000	25,000		This appropriation is intended to cover expenses relating to telecommunications equipment, including cables, purchase, rental, installation, servicing, documentation, and for maintenance contracts of the internal telephone system. Planning assumptions Increased use of mobile equipment may require small increases to this item should demand grow. Some of the existing phones need to be replaced, new ones need to be purchased because of increase in staff. New PBX, the ETF private exchange will be close to its end of life cycle 2008 and may need to be renewed (+10.000)
	Chap. 2 2	Movable property and associated costs	69,800	70,000	71,100

Art.	Item	Title	2008 Pre Draft Budget	2007 Budget	2006 Revised Budget	Remarks 2008

	220 0	Purchase	9,000	9,000	7,500	This appropriation is intended to cover the purchase of technical and office equipment, especially audiovisual, copying, archiving and interpretation equipment. This appropriation is also used for the general replacement of old office equipment such as faxes, binding machines etc. Planning assumptions A project for improvement of meeting facilities is ongoing. A tender for replacement of audiovisual equipment has been launched late 2006 and some items due to budget insufficiency might be purchased early 2007. For the moment it is not possible to identify the precise budget split.
	220 2	Rentals	37,000	37,000	32,500	This appropriation is intended to cover the costs of rental/leasing of materials and/or equipment, which is uneconomic or difficult to purchase on account of limited available budgetary resources (e.g. copy machines). Planning assumptions A new contract will be concluded July 2007, therefore it is difficult at the moment to estimate the costs. An increase was taken into consideration also because of an increase in needs (number of copies, speed of copiers, new generation of machines). Intention to re-launch tender in 2007, when finalised the expectations will be clearer - additional costs may be incurred
	220 3	Maintenance, utilisation and repairs	4,000	4,000	3,500	This appropriation is intended to cover the costs of maintenance and repair of the materials and equipment listed under items 2200 to 2202 and the cost of additional copies in excess of the number stipulated in the Foundation's supplier framework contract. Planning assumptions New contract to start July 2007. This year an increase in the number of copies has been observed. The increasing number of faxes (most of them out of warranty) as well as other equipment: smartboards, projectors to be covered for post warranty has been taken into account.

Funds could be utilised elsewhere if the ETF van is sold. Planning assumptions ETF Van - decommissioning planned for 2007 - use rented vehicles instead. A feasibility study has shown that ETF could operate equally without a vehicle and the intention is therefore to decommission the vehicle, however the timeframe remains to be defined. If discontinued, the funds can be utilised elsewhere.
