We are

The European Training Foundation is an EU agency working on the development of education, training and labour markets with a difference: we work with countries neighbouring the European Union.

Our mission is to shape a better future for people. We aim at contributing to the social cohesion and sustainable growth of the countries we work with. EU Member States and their citizens benefit in turn from improved economic relations with those countries.

Are you looking for a career where you can make a real difference? Join us! We're a dynamic team of passionate professionals who are dedicated to promoting EU values and creating positive change.

Your role

We are looking for candidates who are passionate about project management, driven by self-organisation, committed to teamwork and ready to be part of our vibrant community!

Project officers contribute to the planning, implementation and monitoring of ETF projects by:

- effectively developing and implementing project plans, and monitoring and reporting on progress
- accurately preparing budgets and monitoring their implementation
- performing tasks in the financial circuits to commit funds and/or process requests for payment. This entails working with set workflows and EU standards
- supporting the management of contracts with external providers. This also requires the drafting of technical specifications for contracting services
- organising meetings, workshops, conferences and other events (on-line, in-presence or hybrid). This involves preparing materials, organising logistics and coordinating participants and facilitators, managing various online platforms and tools
- supporting the organisation and sharing of documents to contribute to knowledge management
- contributing to the dissemination of project work through various means, including social media
- being a strong team member by engaging, communicating, exchanging and facilitating collaboration with internal and external stakeholders

- working flexibly. This entails switching back and forth between tasks, organising work to meet deadlines, navigating various databases and tools with agility
- committing to continuous professional development. This includes being proactive in acquiring new skills and refining existing ones, actively seeking feedback from colleagues, and incorporating it constructively to enhance performance.

- English: level C1 in all dimensions as per the CEFRL

Very good soft skills in

- accuracy and attention to detail
- agility and adaptability
- oral and written communication
- self-organisation
- solution-oriented mindset

Assets

- level B2 in all dimensions as per the CEFRL in one of the languages of the countries in which ETF works
- experience in digital content development
- experience in using interpretation equipment for online meetings

ETF values and expected behaviour

- accountability for own actions
- innovation and creativity
- integrity and respect
- service orientation
- working together

Your application

Send your application via the ETF website, under “about” and then “recruitment” sections by the closing date: 4 June 2024 at 23.59 \(Turin time\).

You are strongly advised not to wait until the last day to submit your application since heavy internet traffic or a fault with the internet connection could lead to difficulties in submission. The ETF cannot be held responsible for any delays to your application due to such difficulties.

Formal requirements

Your application must include, preferably in English, a cover letter of one page maximum, explaining why you are interested in the position and a curriculum vitae using the Europass CV format.

Only applications submitted online through the ETF website, in line with the formal requirements mentioned above, will be accepted for the selection procedure.

Selection

Board

A board is appointed by the ETF Director. Its composition is published on the ETF website together with the vacancy notice.

The board's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and any contact with its members is not allowed. Contacting them constitutes grounds for disqualification from the procedure.

Five consecutive phases

Phase 1 – Screening of applications against eligibility criteria

To be considered eligible, you must satisfy the following criteria on the closing date for the submission of the applications:

- 1 Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union or the countries where the ETF works, excluding Belarus
- 2 Enjoy full rights as a citizen
- 3 Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by law concerning military service
- 4 Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- 5 Have a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma

or

Have a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education and at least three years of appropriate professional experience after that diploma.

Only diplomas that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are the subject of equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the said Member States shall be taken into consideration.

- 6 Have a thorough knowledge (level C1 in all dimensions as per the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages or CEFRL) of one of the languages of the Union and have a satisfactory knowledge (level B2 in all dimensions as per the CEFRL) of another language of the Union, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

Applications meeting all formal requirements and eligibility criteria move to the next phase.

Documents proving eligibility will be requested to selected candidates and assessed before employment. Please refer to the section “Your employment and benefits” for further information.

Phase 2 – Selection for interviews and written tests

The board will assess the applications against the professional experience, technical skills and knowledge and assets. Please refer to the section “Experience, skills and knowledge”.

The candidates presenting the most appropriate applications will be invited to attend an interview and written tests. It is expected that around 20 candidates will be invited.

As we expect a high number of applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted by the HR team. This is expected to take place in mid-June.

Phase 3 – Interviews and written tests

The board will assess the candidates’ professional experience, skills, knowledge and assets required for the position and for Contract Agents of the EU through an interview and written tests. At least one part of the tests will be evaluated anonymously. The interviews and written tests will be held primarily in English and will be organised remotely.

Upon completion of this phase, the board will put forward to the ETF Director a proposal for the reserve list of suitable candidates considered the most in line with the professional experience, skills, knowledge and assets.

Suitable candidates shall have reached at least:

- 70% of the points allocated to soft skills, and
- 70% of the points allocated to professional experience, technical skills and knowledge.

This phase is expected to take place at the beginning of July.

Phase 4 – Establishment of a reserve list

Having assessed the proposal made by the board, the ETF Director will establish the reserve list of candidates s/he considers the most suitable for the position.

The list will be valid until 31 December 2025. This may be extended by decision of the Director. Inclusion in the list does not guarantee a job offer.

Phase 5 – Meeting(s) the Director and/or Manager(s)

When a position is available, the Director and/or relevant manager(s) may meet a candidate included in the reserve list. The aim of the meeting(s) is to assess whether the candidate’s profile matches the ETF contingent needs for the available position.

Your employment and benefits

Should we offer a contract of employment, the ETF will be bound to the offer only where the candidate, prior to the contract signature, has:

- provided proof that s/he meets all the eligibility criteria. S/he must:
 - provide original or certified copies of all relevant documents, including a clean police record
 - undergo a medical examination that establishes s/he is physically fit to perform the duties involved

- informed the ETF of any actual or potential conflict of interest and has been considered as having no personal interest such as to impair his/her independence.

Contract of employment

Contract agent contracts are in accordance with article 3(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) of the European Union. Under this type of contract, the employee is bound by the CEOS as well as the relevant Implementing Rules.

The duration of contract(s) offered may vary according to ETF needs. It may be renewable. It is subject to a probation period of nine months.

Remuneration

The typical salary for a single employee, with three years of relevant professional experience: circa 2,600 net/month; or for an employee, with three years of relevant professional experience, expatriation allowance and one dependent child: circa € 3,800 net/month.

Continuity of employment between EU agencies

Should the successful candidate currently hold a Contract Agent 3(a) contract, s/he may qualify for mobility under the terms of the CEOS and relevant Implementing Rules.

Cooperation among EU agencies

To promote collaboration among EU agencies, the ETF may share the reserve list with other Agencies. Prior to sharing, the ETF will obtain consent from each candidate on the reserve list to share their application. The ETF will also inform each candidate which Agency or Agencies will receive their data.
